Dear Mr. Chapman:

Your favor of 11th Dec., to hand. I have a small 1 cent 6 which was it not for some very small dents on the Obv. would class as extremely fine as it shows only slight traces of wear and the Rev. is practically uncirculated.

Fortunately I got it before the present craze for advancing prices on cents so it stands me much less than the price you ask, in fact less than one-third, I only know of one finer. Mr. Newcomb says "it is a wonder".

Your Catalog came in last Saturday and I have checked a few to check with my collection. I do not bid on many cents now as I find it very hard to get any that will improve what I have. However I expect to send in a few bids.

Yours Very Truly
Geo H Clapp

Have never attempted to make a collection of half cents and have only a few of the commoner ones mostly picked up when I was a boy. Have none of the 40's.

Clapp

X
